

HARMLESS HARVEST®

Notice of Voluntary Recall – Harmless Harvest Dairy-Free Yogurt Drink, 8 oz.

Dear Customer,

This letter is to inform you that we are voluntarily recalling specific lots of Harmless Harvest's Dairy-Free Yogurt Drink beverages after identifying a possible packaging defect that may result in premature spoilage. Consumers may notice that, in some cases, the packaging is bloated or swelling, and product inside may have an off taste or odor. In limited cases, mold may be visible. The risk of injury from spoilage, bloating/swelling, or from common types of mold is unlikely. Further laboratory testing is being conducted to gain more information on the mold. Given the foregoing, Harmless Harvest is advising consumers not to consume the product, and to throw it away or return to the store where originally purchased.

The recalled products are limited to the following Use By dates ("Products"):

Product: Dairy-Free Yogurt Drink, 8 oz.

Use By: 13MAY19 and 28MAY19

Flavors & UPCs:

- Original Unsweetened – UPC 859078-002962
- Strawberry – UPC 859078-002979
- Blueberry – UPC 859078-002986
- Mango – UPC 859078-002993

No reports have been received of any consumer illness nor injuries to date. No consumer complaints related to swollen bottles and off taste/odor have been received to date.

As these Products do not meet with Harmless Harvest's high-quality standards, we request that you pull all affected products from distribution centers and store shelves. Your assistance is appreciated and necessary to prevent consumers from purchasing potentially spoiled product. We will be honoring credits for the affected product. Please send Certificates of Destruction with photos of the affected product to Harmless Harvest at quality@harmlessharvest.com. If you have shipped this affected product to a customer, please notify them at once of this recall. Provide Harmless Harvest with a summary of all billbacks submitted and processed quantities from the retail outlets where our product was distributed.

Please complete and return the following response form as soon as possible. This recall is being conducted with the knowledge of the US Food and Drug Administration.

This recall does not impact any other Harmless Harvest products. We apologize for the business interruption and greatly appreciate your business. Should you have additional questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Craig Olkiewicz, VP of Sales